Biography

Angela Lamprianidou is a Greek choreographer, grown up in Essen -Germany and later emigrated to Barcelona.

In Barcelona, she studied 4 years, choreography and new techniques of interpretation at the "Institut del Teatre Barcelona", in Essen dance at "Luis Mijares dance Studio", Arnaldo Alvarez (Pina Bausch Company) and Ballett with Henrike Guha in Fürth, in Erlangen Dentistry at the "Friedrich Alexander University Erlangen-Nürnberg".

This melange de trois makes her pieces like conspiracies, with a looping logic and a certain tenaciousness, when it comes to understanding/appreciating pure form and energy.

Angela lived in Barcelona for 13 years. Her teachers recognised very quickly her exceptional ability to focus on staging and choreographing. She has received several honours for composition, staging and dance history, and has won diverse awards, such as "danse mes a prop barcelona, no ballet Ludwigshafen among others. But when she realized that competitions are for horses not artists, she stopped competing.. She has collaborated with theaters such as the "mercat de les flors," "antic teatre," "national teatre of catalonià", and also underground spaces and faces.

She presently lives also in Berlin and is a freelancer choreographer -teacher + Doctor with a transcendental kidney. She specialises in temporomandibular joint problems. <http://www.you-are-the-point.de/energiewerkstatt-en.html>

She is a qualified Yoga teacher BDY and Yoga Coach, certified by the "Shrivivek Center of Barcelona".

During her dance education, she studied Klein technique with Barbara Mahler and has participated in several workshops of BMC and somatic healing movement.
